Or lifted a heavy cross. oth never a snadow or thought of le

I fendle his stock ogs and preftr kilts, And the curis once shorn from h s restless bend; ir nothers grow strange and fanciful When their attle book are de.id.

As a ch bl's flest footsteps pa fer near, Or a should rougs out on the summor sur, And dream on, boy is here. But never at morning, noon, or dusk, Hy night or due does the dream come to No puts leads back from the portain fair His reet have pattered through

Only to rock him at twil ght hour, nd fold him sere in his downy bed; To | nger the off-told stories o'er. And hear his n gut prayer said.

Only to look at his hazel eves, Perp my from onder the battered brim Of h s m suced but on to hear h s laugh; But the house is still and prim.

Or ra a on the pantry's store

But only a denolare, darkened house, That mourns in a lence for I the Jim

He will never, never return to me,

But I-I shall go to him!

-Lilled Grey, in Good Housekeeping.

A PEACEFUL VICTORY.

A Grand War Hero and His Glori- dark and desolate before him. That old armoire. ous Reward.

Lust Garten its loudest and its mer- prominently than others in the young Good evening." sights and sounds were the hearts of | -how long ago it seemed-when he your visit.' the villagers. The war, which had had discovered her standing on the "Ich bitte." united Bavarians, Saxons and Prussians in a great bond of brotherhood sians in a great bond of brotherhood farewell to the artist within. The sun buried his face in the cushions. His had crowned the long series of Ten- Wilhelm had stood motionless in the he was alone, the contrast between his tonic victories, and peace was secured grass-grown street to watch her. He own lot and that of Franz occurred to at last. Even little Weindorf had had remembered, too, a Sunday evening in him with a fresh sense of pain. He autumn, when he had accompanied her was tired and weak; and the suddenits share in the struggle, had given its and her father to the Lust Garten. The ness of the interview had unmanned rejoining, which was the outcome of had wandered off by themselves to him from the church; above his head knitting. She had a yellow, wrinkled ant voice, speaking with a foreign ac- the bridal of Franz and Gretchen. looked keenly out over a pair of broad- shop, and Wilhelm sprang to his feet en! O, how can I bear it?"

Weindorf fruiterer's shop. His father away certain mental cobwebs, which There came a touch on his arm. keeping. A quiet, good-humored little at some wayside inn, he thought, and tears were in her bright eyes. drens took a fancy to the boy, gave him | tual face, full of animation and vitality; | I loved thee. music and poetry. As time wore on, his eye in place of the old woman ness transliguring her face. morning and evening sunlight stream- as you call him, is Franz Muller." evitable to a man of his fervent poet- himself of the right sort, ch?" ical temperament; he fell in love. The object of his affection was Gretchen ler." Kellner, daughter of Hans Kellner, who kept the Favorit Backerei. ation. She had figured in one or two of his sketches of Weinderf corners, and the report circulated among the self. The look in the soldier's face of not pitiful, but proud—proud of thy with a sawed-off tail; one that can didn't waste his time talking politics. as presiding over a flower-stall, would cause; he laid his band kindly on the still shortly appear. Gretchen Kellner had young man's shoulder. young farmer, who rented a few acres down at his crippled arm. within a mile of Weindorf. Franz did | "Assuredly not. War doesn't pro-not shine in mixed society, but in his vide the only opportunity surely for "Franz! Don't be troubled for him." working-day manners, he cut an ad- displaying courage and self-sacrifice, said Gretchea's reassuring voice. mirable figure, with his tall, active the qualities which make up heroism. "Franz is a great man now-an officer, of a Dakota lawyer and said: form, his erect head, his handsome You haven't read Carlyle on heroes. He has passed out of our stationsunburnt face, his toil-marked hands, and his manliness of hearing. Then, too, he was well off, and had an extoo, he was well off, and had an exceptionally comfortable home to offer on, yes, Father Andreas taught me in his present rank of life. Then he is a mandamus a writ, too?"

from resigning her freedom and curtailing her train of adorers by definite The control of the co acceptance of any one among her nu- sonnet of Cromwell"-the Englishman decline to become his wife merous suitors. First one admirer, translated the lines into rough literal | When Frau Bauer returned from the "What is the usual rate for making then another, would be singled out for German-" Peace has her victories not Lust Garten she found a guest at her collections in the Territory?" marks of favor, but when the question less renowned than war.' Her vic- house, in the person of Gretchen Kellof marriage was propounded, the girl tors are intellectual and moral victors; ner. The girl remained for supper, became obdurate. "Upon that sub- you may be one of them-why not? and amply proved her appreciation of up my mind this morning to become a hit you?" French Journalist-"No."

was Wilhelm's animating motive for standing before him, with a diffident netion. He courted danger gladly, for the sake of the distinctions which he wilhelm gave the new-comer a milihopen to gain thereby, to lay at his tary salute. "You here, Herr Licutendarling's feet. Gretchen was ambi- ant!" he exclaimed. "There-I have -he had caught the German style of tious; she would not, Wilhelm told sctually remembered to call you by ejaculation. "Now, at last," unless I himself, refuse to share his name when your title. I feared that it would be am very much mistaken, my friend, he had made it famous.

had risen from the ranks.

difficult to remember at first." The young man's high hopes were "I don't want you to remember," re- consciously won a peaceful victorydoomed to disappointment. Very early sponded Franz. in the day of his first engagement, be-"At least, I can't forget-no one who tory in love." fore any opportunity presented itself knows you will ever forget how you He walked on whistling under his for proving the valor which was in won your title. You must let me thank breath "Only to think," he said to him, young Bauer was carried, Insensi- you, Franz"-the familiar name slipped | himself, with rather a conscious little blu and severely wounded, from the out, and Wilhelm did not recall it- laugh, "that the Fraulein Gretchen has field. Long weeks followed of fever in "for the honor which you have brought succumbed at last!" The English-

the hospital-fever which, though a upon the regiment." fatal issue at one time seemed immi-nent, was at last subdued, but from He had not come here for a tribute of professional; certain interviews, which which the patient awoke weary and | thanks or praise; its reception troubled | had savored unquestionably of flirtaweakened to the dreary knowledge him. He looked down on his com- tion, occurred to his remembrance. that the use of one of his limbs-en rade's face-blanched and saddened by "One never understands a woman; arm-had gone from him forever. He illness and imprisonment, and words Gretchen is not, after all, the heartless had won no vestige of the renown for in which to convey his sympathy were cequet for whom I took her. I'll be which he yearned; it was as a cripple, difficult to be found. "His emotions" shot if I don't believe that it is her and not as a hero, that he must return |- as an American author has neatly soldier's apparent failure in life-his to Gretchen and home. He inquired said-"were entertained in a chamber failure to win the applause of the concerning Franz. A storm of landa- of his heart, remote from the portals of Weindorf world-which has gained tion answered him Franz had covered speech;" he feared now to appear im- him her love at last."-Annette Calhimself with glory. By a deed of pertinent or patronizing. grand courage he had saved the life of "What what are you going to do his commanding officer; distinctions with your future?" he blurted out at were showered upon him: he had re- last. His bluntness went straighter to ceived an officer's commission, and his companion's heart than any elaborate expression of sympathy could have At first, while his thoughts dwelt on gone.

Gretchen and on her probable reception of the news of Franz's exploits Father Andreas was here this morning; and honors, Wilhelm listened with a he says that I am to keep my old pusi- be most likely to obtain a good, durapang of keen jealousy; but when he tion as sacristan, with a boy to do the ble, wild for which could be used for had heard the whole tale of his com- beavy work. My wages will be re- hunting purposes on my premises? I rade's valor, tears of generous admira- duced, but an army pension is to be desire a fox that is a good roadster and tion started to his eyes. Franz had given me, and will make up the deficirichly deserved his rewards. As for ency. And when granny gives up the yet not too bloodthirsty. If I could sesimself, his achievements, and there- but hess-she talks of retiring soon-I eure one that would not bite it would fore his deservings, were nil. He must am to succeed to the stock-in-trade." | tickle me most to death.

bear the disappointment and the ob- Franz drew forward a chair and You know, perhaps, that I am of explanation is simple. They had been tagging me about for an hour," scurity of his lot silently and patiently seated himself, but his conversational English origin. Some of the best and taken up from a stream or pond by The newspaper man jumped for the over it. But now, when Weinderf was astir in the place looks! One forgets that crepit families in England flows in my with holiday-makers—now, when he one has been away, " he said at length, veins. There is no better blood extant. lay, unsought and alone, in the deep- glancing round the little room, with its We love the exhibitanting sports of our ening twilight, Wilhelm's heart was well-worn table and chairs, with the very sore. He tried to look into the print of the Madonna, with the bowl of through and through like the free chase uture with steady eyes, but it lay very | potato salad set ready for supper on the morning he had written, with his one "Y-es, one forgets-sometimes." useful hand-happily his right hand-a | The response was not emphatic. "Will letter to Gretchen, in which he re- you smoke, Herr Lieutenant?" It was the evening of a long, hot nounced all hope to win her as his "No, thanks. I must"-rising, with ing; a brass band was playing in the had seen Gretchen stood out more in for a little moment on my way, head lake; but now and then it will asriest. In full harmony with the gay man's memory. He recalled one day "Good evening. Thank you for sacrifice. Only the day before my watch the sun set over a distant range hung the pictured compassionate face cost and a loose dark jacket, and with And now it was all over—the glorious helm's excited fancy it seemed like children into the rich mold, to "sick" Island of Kallak, sixty miles from the ty-just when nobody knows. A large a gay-colored cotton handkerchief tied of marriage music—the body of earth, chiefly sand, by some active sound for body of earth, chiefly sand, by some acti face, and her round, sharp, dark eyes looked basely and the pack and return to the looked basely and ber round. Sare, permanent and complete are the looked basely and per sandy hill, called the Pineo field, of a dry sandy hill, called the Pineo field, open-eyed peasant the quivering seat of sissippi valleys. Lately it has been leaving an open channel or hole extend-side: a look of utter sadness was in his trymen. The Lust Garten, with its perhaps, because no one knows and no had died early; the mether quickly followed her bushand; Wilhelm, at a tender ago, passed into his grandmother's der ago, passed into his grandmother's walk into the country. He would sup lad, he soon learned to make himself return to Weindorf by moonlight. The Wilhelm tried to raise, but the deuseful in the shop and to gain the fruit at Frau Bauer's attracted his no- taining touch was still upon his arm favor alike of its proprietress and pat- tice; he stood now filling his pockets "That it should have needed this!" rons. At school he evinced decided aptitude for learning; he had a good voice, too, and presently became member of the church choir. Father Any properties and pattern of the second flow ining in species has a share of this sert of sweetmeats, but the girl exclaimed passionately; that agent in the distribution of species has aptitude for learning; he had a good voice, too, and presently became member of the church choir. Father Any properties and pattern in the distribution of species has aptitude for learning in the distribution of species has aptitude for learning the girl exclaimed passionately; that distribution of species has aptitude for learning the species has aptitude for learning the suffering the girl exclaimed passionately; that distribution of species has aptitude for learning the girl exclaimed passionately; that it should have needed thy suffering the sound for the course of this sert of this series and green size of this series and green size of this series and series ber of the church choir. Father An. vigorous fellow, with a plain, intellect held dearest to teach me how entirely weeks at the hospital with a fractured Stearns."

He rang the church bell for early mass, for vespers of benediction; he swept and cleaned the church and sacristy at least once in every week; when no alcolyte was present he assisted the voice sounding out clear and sweet in Weindorf, and, as a stranger, his igno-country's sake, than in the heat and that will come home nights. I had a the incense-lader air. The quiet old rance concerning individual villagers rush of battle to do some deed of des- fox last season for hunting purposes, son? Well, that's right. Ilike to see wonderingly into Gretchen's face. He I want one that I shall always know "I don't know but one place for boys," ing through the colored windows; all the pictures were his familiar friends. Twant one that I shall always know the pictures were his familiar friends. Twant one that I shall always know the pictures were his familiar friends. Twant one that I shall always know the pictures when I want to bunt. Early in life Wilhelm met the fate inevitable to a man of his ferrent posts.

Well, Herr Franz showed presence dazzied and confused him.

Nothing can be more annoying than himself of the right sort, ch?"

"My here!" The girl caught his to be compelled to go to the pound and "Of a very brave sort, Herr Kunst- right hand and held it to her breast, to redeem a fox, when a party is mounted her lips. "I was never worthy of thy and waiting to hunt him. love. But since I have learned to I do not care to vouch for the gait of | work and it'll map out itself. Keep realize the vanity and frivolity of my a fox, whether he lopes, trots or paces, Gretchen was the belle of Weindorf, a charming madehen, with a graceful latent sadness of his voice was not lost little figure. a bewitchingly beight who looked inquire municiation reached me this morning. Withelm spoke up stoutly, but the past life. I have learned to prize the so that his feet are sound and his wind grow on 'em. Thus wisely speaks your upon his hearer, who looked inquire numeration reached me this morning.

"And well carned his honors?"

"Very well -nobly."

in the village before he made nequain-tance with Gretchen and conceived for military institutions and old theories. Withelm understood now. The blood the laziest white man, I think, in the her an impersonal painter's passion. His fingers itched to paint her, and in due time he secured her services as due to the secured her model at a moderate rate of renumer- ences between nations were too ad- accept the sacrifice. I must not let thy ster; one that will come and eat out of could sit longer on a store box, his hat neighbors that in the great picture ex- patiently-born suffering-suffering men- fortitude and thy patience. But if jump a barbed wire fence without because he was too lazy to talk much. hibition held yearly in London a full- tally as well as physically-touched thou hast pity for me, and for my mussing it up with fragments of his He lived with your grandmother, and length portrail of the girl, represented him, the more so as he half-guessed its many faults-if thou carest for me rider. Any one who may have such a she used to say that the sun

Gretchen's voice broke. Wilhelm's communicate with me in person or by George go to the wood-pile and many admirers, consequently Wilhelm had many rivals. Among these rival claimants for her hand was a Franz claimants for her hand was a Franz claimants for her hand was a Franz communicate with me in person or by letter, inclosing references. I may be against his shoulder, he bent down against his shoulder, he bent down heroism is not over yet."

Otherwise the did any pick up the axe. If he did any work at all in his life it was long bearing against his shoulder, her hand was a Franz beroism is not over yet." claimants for her hand was a Franz heroism is not over yet."

and touched her hair with his lips. my estate, spread out under a tree, enmuller, an unpolished, taciturn, but "Not over, sir!" Wilhelm spoke in But in the midst of his rejoicing a paingaged in thought.—E. Fitzwilliam Nye, Now, I have frequently noticed that decidedly good looking and capable almost an injured tone; he glanced ful remembrance occurred to him. in Boston Eagle. "Der arme Franz!" he exclaimed, with about him. He was a great English will be thankful never doubt that he Greichen was a coquet; she shrank | poet-nicht?-and he wrote 'Paradise | will be thankful-that an insignificant ject," she said airily, "she had not made up her mind."

Now give me my change, please—fifteen made up her mind."

The suspense of his position was all

The Englishman departed abruptly

The Englishman departed abruptly

The suspense of his position was all but unendurable to Wilhelm. His love as he had come. Wilhelm watched home at the Favorit Backerei. How I'll hang out my shingle in the mornwas an over-mastering passion; him briskly mounting the steep street, long a time the lovers consumed in ing."-Estelline (D. T.) Bell. Gretchen-her beauty and her tantaliz- under the slow mounting moon. The traversing the few yards, or how many ing, enslaving coquetry—was never visitor's words had not proved fruitful words they found to exchange upon the of consolation, but the kindness of their way, it is not the business of this his-At last came the war between France intention was manifest enough.

and Germany. Wilhelm Bauer and "It was Gretchen who told the En-Franz Moller, who had both served in glishman about Franz," Wilhelm re- Kellner's shop the Englishman came Nantucket from twenty to thirty cents the army the three years demanded by flected as he made his way through the up at his swinging pace. He recogthe State of every German, volunteered shop to his sitting-room, for active service. Love for Gretchen, A shadow came between him and the lein, and doffed his hat in salutation, ing to the scarcity and the great deno less than love for the national cause, light. Lifting his eyes he saw Franz He saw Wilhelm, too, and took in at mand. The "natives" never ste the

S-o!" exclaimed the Englishman Interesting Conclusions Reached by an Officer of the U. S. Fish Commission.

not a Miltonic one, by-the-by-a vic- Nebraska, were startled by a rainman's own relationship to the damsel

the soldier, has uncontrovertibly and throp, in Home Chimes. WANTED A FOX.

The Owner of the Slipperyelmhurst Estate, Hudson, Wisa Dying for the Possession of a Good, Durable Hunting Beast.

Could you inform a constant reader of your valuable paper where he would across country behind the fleeing fox, Joyousiy we gailop over the sward behind the yelping pack, as we clearly scent high, low, jack and the game.

My ancestors are haughty English summer day. The Bavarian village of Weindorf was en fete. Flags were flylocal band was playing in the local an above of the local band was playing in the local band with that of a cripple.

A start betokening self-reminder—"be going on to the Lust Garten; the Herr has been mellowed by the elderberry wine and huckleberry juice of Moosesert itself and mantle in the broad and indestructible check of our race. Ever and anon in our family you will notice themselves to almost any conditions, down the street covered with blood and the slender, triangular chest, the broad | and hence it is not surprising that they | half frantic with pain fore and aft. It and haughty sweep of abdomen, and have a very wide range, or distribus seems to me that ladies ought to profit by the high, intellectual expanse of pelvie | tion. ngainst a common enemy, had been had caught her red hair, which seemed self-composure had been perfect while man; proud, high spirited, soaked full continued the doctor, "explains the they court such things, but they do so disbone, which denotes the true Englishbrought to a triumphant close. Sedan like an aureole round her lovely face. his visitor was present, but, now that of calm disdain, wearing checked distribution of some species of fish like being mixed up in any sort of a row pantaloons, and a soft, flabby tourist's over regions sometimes separated by that creatures who are guilty of such con-

on his head straight. chase, and speak in a slightly manner | had it at earlier periods. Fish of ex- less inconvenience of didies. story opens two Weindorfers had re- of hills. Wilhelm had spoken to of the Mother of Sorrows. But Wil- of my wild, wild yearn for the rush actly the same species will be found in turned from the war, and one of them Gretchen-not without a touch of na- helm did not open his ears-did not lift and scamper of the hunt. By Jove, places far distant from each other. had made for himself a name in whose tive poetry-of his love and longing; his head. "Franz never mentioned but it is joy indeed to gallop over the The long nose sucker common here is reflected glory his friends and neighbors found no small cause for exultabors found no small cause for exultabors found no small cause for exultaliebchen," and held her hand impristo ask when the betrothal ceremony
the meet and the cucumber vines of the liebchen, and in Alaska. The round whiteto ask when the betrothal ceremony
the meet and the cucumber vines of the liebchen, and in Alaska. The round whiteto ask when the betrothal ceremony
the meet and the cucumber vines of the liebchen, and in Alaska. The round whiteliebchen, and held her hand impristo ask when the betrothal ceremony an old dame, in a short blue-stuff petti- part had only been few and faint. Still the organ pealed on. To Wil- the peasant and tramp her low, coarse Yukon river in Alaska, and also in the the town of Dubiois, in Washington Coun-speckled two-year-old of the low born | bull in a china shop. If we could only | A Coate ville girl has steady company church had a great charm for him; he knew every dim corner, every spot upon the pavement which caught the could readily be excused.

"No, sir, I have done nothing heroic by a lifetime of praise."

"No, sir, I have done nothing heroic by a lifetime of praise."

Wilhelm had risen, too. He looked I do not want an animal of that kind.

face, and a mass of gloriously, un compromisingly red hair. The English arist had not long established himself very clearly defined, but he called take it, for 'Gretchen's voice sank to the off hind foot and crawled under a George. I knew him when I was a horse or pipless fox will do well to stood still every time it saw

Preparing for Admission. A young man dropped into the office

"What is a habeas corpus?" "It is a kind of writ for ---." "That's all I want to know about it.

"Use pretty considerable of these derstand a modern game of base-ball

"We usually take about half." "All right thanks. You see I made "Yes." French Statesman - Did he PECULIAR SHOWERS.

identity fixed. A reporter inspected

"We often hear of its raining fishes," the bottle containing the fishes, "this is a case about which there is no doubt and which proves that the story about am glad that we have had opportunity, lowers of fish are not mythical.

to fall from the clouds:

you how hard he had to work when he if I dogo along with you. I'm pretty fond of labor myself, and I don't know of any harder work than trying to un-lce-crasm as a chromo.

was a boy. Well, yes; I don't mind preserved in alcohol.

THRASHING A MASHER, How One Member of the Dude Fraternity Received His Just Deserts. [N. Y. Cor. Boston Herald.] On the 14th of June last the people The New York masher is growing more of Harvard, a town in Clay County, numerous, more insulting and more generally inexcusable than ever he was bestorm, which was accompanied by a fore. I have been in a good many cities fall of fishes, apparently from the sky. of the world during my somewhat scat-These fishes, which were alive, fell it | tered career, and I have seen the masher large quantities. Many of them were in ever clime and every shape, from the picked up by residents of the place and haughty young buck of the Red Cloud Indlan agency to the dandled little chap preserved in aquaria or in alcohol. who parades the boulevards of Paris in Mr. May, Fish Commissioner of the tight clothes and high-heeled patent-State of Nebraska, happening to be in leather pumps. But of all of them the the neighborhood of Harvard, secured meanest, the most despicable and the lowsome of the fishes, and as he had busis est clown is the one who saunters up and down Breadway. His name is legion, and ness with Prof. Baird in this city, down broadway. his occupation runs from a professional brought the fish with him to Washingdude to a coachman. He is not satton for the purpose of having their isfled with staring insolently at every woman he meets, but he must talk the fish recently in Dr. Tarleton H. to her as well. Sometimes he will follow Bean's laboratory next the Smithsonian. her for blocks, now passing by, now drop-There were half a dozen young fish, ping back, and all the time pressing his atabout an inch and a half in length each, tention forward most impertmently. One of these precious objects is just now keep-ing bimself very scarce, and he will prob-Jacobs Oil trade marks, contended, he said Dr. Benn, as the reporter examined ship be wise enough to go on in that pur- ever, that sufficient similarity existed suit for some time to come. The other afternoon he started in to follow a very used by the Vogelor Company to cause constructive girl, who is the wife of a newspaper writer I know. The fellow actually of this position they submitted an over had the impertinence to keep close behind had the importance to keep close behind whelming amount of evidence from En-his intended victim clear up to the door of glish, American and Australian sources only to prove the fact that fishes are rained flowin but to investigate and her husband's office. When she came out she that bim, and he spoke to her. She was of the court Churchill and Company can explain what appears to be out of the natural order of things. These fish angry, and she wanted revenge. So she prove to be a common species of led him right through the outer office and hat region—the fat head or black into the inner room, where her husband gland within three years. head minnow. How did they come was dictating to his stenographer. The "This," she said, "is a masher. He has

bluest blood of the oldest and most de- cyclone action and carried through the stranger, who can for dear life. On the air until the force of gravity, or the stairs there was a tussle, a sound like the rain storm overcame the lateral mo- smashing of a human jaw, a howl, and tion and they descended with the fait! the basty retreat of Mr. Masher, who fled to the ground. As the fish were alive down the street at the top of his speed. it is probable that they came from a The husband went back to the office, go stream near town. A cyclene, though, his cost and stick, and started out to scour would take a quantity of water up in a the town for the masher. To-day he mass, and the fish might be carried found his man and fetched him a crack some distance alive. These minnows across the nose which, in all probability, are hardy, and can live under most troke that useful member. The mashe precarious circumstances. They live begged for mercy, and the angry journaln sluggish streams and have been ist said to him: "Every time I see you, found in water having a large percent- no matter where it is, I am going age of salt. We had one that came to lick you within an inch of your from an artesian well, so they probably life," Then he administered to the adapt themselves to subterranean masher a kick where it would do streams. In fact they seem to adapt the most good, and sent him scuttling this example. It is parily their own fault that they are so of en insulted. Not that hat that has a bow at both ends, so that | natural obstacles, and which can not duct almost invariably get off scot-free, a man can not get too drunk to put it easily be accounted for otherwise, and are encouraged to try it again. There The young fish are carried through the is no husband or brother in the land who I know that here in democratic Amer. | air and deposited into other streams, | would not beartily enjoy all chances of blood and its tears in the sacred cause, old man had been speedily captured by him. The sound of sacred music and ica, where every man has to earn This theory is more important when thrashing one of these fellows every time the sacred cause, old man had been speedily captured by him. The sound of sacred music and ica, where every man has to earn and had earned its right to share in the some friends, and the two young people of singing voices was borne in upon his living or marry rich, people will we consider that many regions which be could get a chance. And if the chances seorn my high-born love of the fox | have no cyclone action now may have came offerer there would be a good deal Contract of 0 fr

A Curious Natural Phenomenon, [Lewiston (Me.) Journal |

Let others rave over the dreamy auxiliary to the fish commission 2" con- ing the trees standing intact.

A Girl Who Get Enough Elmes. [Coatesville (Pa.) Times.]

rustic across the open and into the | harness the cyclone, now, it might be | in the person of a young man who is forof some service. It is a wonder that ever and forever a kissing her. She likes perfectly and permanently cures these discussions are perfectly and permanently cures the permanently cures the permanently cures the permanently cure and permanently cures the permanently cure and permanently cures the permanently cures the permanently cure and permanently cure are permanently cure and permanently cure and permanently cure are permanently cures the permanently cure and permanently cure are permanently cure and permanently cure and permanently cure are permanently cure and permanently cure are permanently cure and permanently cure and permanently cure are permanently cure are permanently cure and permanently cure are permanently cure and permanently cure are permanently cure and permanently cure are permanently cure are permanently cure and perma Let others sing of the zephyrs that this theory of cyclone action as an a share of this sert of swestmeats, but that she would be made the target of no ing effects of this great restorative. By rib and I am proud and happy. All Dr. Robert E. C. Stearns, in a paper end of osculatory practice. Out on the druggists. we can let it alone.

Wilhelm, grown into a young man, whom he had expected. Then, as a "When first I heard of Franz's dis
When first I heard of Franz's dis
This shows our superiority as a race, and streams and transporting them drew out a baseball catcher's mask, agents, taking up the waters of lakes from somewhere beneath her wrap she took upon him the duties of sacristan. new thought struck him, and went on tinction," she said, "I rejoiced; but We have been that way for hard with their contents a great many miles. Strapped it to ber face and reached out Him the duties of sacristan. The report of the contents a great many miles. Strapped it to ber face and reached out Him the duties of sacristan. The report of the sacristan when the whole village him to the sacristan when the whole village him to the sacristan when the sacristan whe

-Washington Star.	for the lines.
THE CENSOR.	THE MARKETS.
A Word About an Eminently Useful and Industrions Personage.  Going out for a little recreation, my son? Well, that's right. I like to see you enjoy yourself. I was just talking to your old Uncle George about boys.	New York, Ang. 30, 1886,   STITLE—Native Stears
"I don't know but one place for boys," said your Uncle George, "and that is work. Put 'em to work and keep 'em at it, for idleness is the parent of all vice. Don't map out any particul trade or calling, but just keep 'em at	Fair to Mediam 5 in 40 00 work and it'll map out itself. Keep 'em at work, and a habit of work will grow on 'em. That's the way I was brought up." Thus wisely speaks your old fashioned Uncle George. Now before you hurry to the base-ball grounds I want to say a word about your Uncle George. I knew him when I was a	R1E-No. 2
boy. He was a young man then, and the laziest white man, I think, in the State of America. His clothes used to mildew before he had moved about in them enough to wear them out. He could sit longer on a store box, his hat pulled over his eyes, blinking at the sun, than any man I over saw. He	CATTLE_Shipping didn't waste his time talking politics, because he was too lazy to talk much. He lived with your grandmother, and she used to say that the sun stood still every time it saw George go to the wood-pile and	HOUSE Sales at   4 29 62 4 65   W HEAT NO. 2   63 62 64   64   65   65   65   65   65   65 pick up the axe. If he did any work at all in his life it was long before your grandmother knew him. Now, I have frequently noticed that men who talk that way—but I am keeping you here and you'll miss that train. I just want to tell you this, because your Uncle George has gone to	16 N   18 00   18 00   18 00   10 17 15   10 16   10 17 15   10 16   10 17 15   10 16   10 17 15   10 16   10 17 15   10 16   10 17 15   10 16   10 17 15   10 16
see the base-ball game, and I know he will see you there, and I don't want	A OTTESTION ADOLE

you to feel discouraged when he tells | A QUESTION ABOUT Brown's Iron Bitters ANSWERED.

The question has probably been saked thousands of times. Her can be own's from Bitters one serve-To which a regulable physicism would measure like 1807. Physicians recognize from as the best restorative agent known to the problembar, and inquiry of any leading chemical from will substantiate the assertion that there are now reparations of iron than of any claim substance used in modeline. This shows condicately that from is achyweledged to be the seest important factor in successful medical practice. It is, however, a remarkable fact, thus prior to the discovery of BROMY NOW 1817 TIPS 700 perfectly satisfactory from comblemation is developed for the problembar of the first problembar of the factors of the first problembar of the first proble -French Statesman-"I understand you have just fought a duel with M. de Bang-Bang." French Journalist -French Statesman - 'Did you hit him?" French Journalist-"No. but it was a narrow escape for both of us." hadache, or produce constitution—all other from medicines do. BROWN'S IRON BITTERS cures Indiquestion. Billiousness, Weakness, Byspepsin. Mularia, Chills and Fevers, Tired Feeling, General Debility, Pain in the Side, Back or Limbs, Headache and Neural-gia—for all these aliments from is prescribed daily. French Statesman-"Indeed!" French Journalist-"Yes, my second, who had charge of the weapons, mislaid them in making all the necessary arrangements, and when we got to the field BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, borres in a we hadn't any thing to fight with." BRUWR S HUR BITTENS, not care in a minute. Like all other thousants medicines, it acts slouly. When taken by use the list sympton of burnels is renewed many. The muscles than become frame, the dissection minuterure, the however the offset is usually more reped and marked. The symboling at once to trighten, the skin clears up; bealthy color comes to the cheeks; nervousness disappears; functional ferrangements become regular, and if a premium wither, abundant sustenance is emplied for the chief. Remember Brown's from Bittees in the ONLY from medicine that is not injurious. Physicians and Brapylos recommend it.

The Comming has Trade Mark and exceed ped lines on wripper. TAKE NO OTHER. French Statesman-"I congratulate you. Give me the name of your second, will you? I've got a little affair of my own to settle next week."-Tid--A New York theater gives to every lady attending a performance a plate of

A Statesman's Queer Attitude. [Washington (Ga.) Chronicle.]

There is a photograph of the late Alex. stephens in the possession of Major Lamar Cobb, of Athens, Ga., in which the Southern statesman is represented with legs closed and the bottoms of both feet your system is all run down and you are obliged to resting squarely upon the floor. This was will purify, vitalize and earlich your blood, create will purify, vitalize and earlich your blood, create a favorite position of Mr. Stephens, and it is said that no one has yet been able to headsche, billousness and dyspepsia, rome and rival him in his acrobatic feat. ---Copy of Cablegram Received from H. D.

Umbataetter, Aug. 23, 1886. LONDON, Eng., Aug. 23, 1886. In the chaucery division of the high court of justice, London, Vice Chancellor Bacon has given his decision in favor of The Charles A. Vogeler Company of Baltimore, Charlestown, Muss. rders, the result of impure blood, I took Hood's arsaparilla, and the result was perfectly satisfac-

Maryland, in the action brought by that house against H. Churchill and Company of Brisbane, Queensland. The case which has been in progress here since September, 1881, grew out of an attempt of Churchill and Company to register a trade mark containing the words St. Patrick Oil in containing the words St. nection with a medicinal preparation This was promptly opposed by the Vogeler Company, who, while admitting that the term and device which were sought to be registered by the Australian firm were in tween the term St. Patricks applied by Churchill and Company and St. Jacobs as with the result stated. Under the decision AND ALL MALARIAL DISEASES, not register their mark and must pay costs of the case. This is the second trade mark suit won by the Vogeler Company in En-

THE pupil of one's eve is made to attend

Ayer's Ague Cure is acknowledged to be the standard remedy for fever and ague.

Ir there is any one who should be "rapped " it is the man who snores --Chicago Tribune.

SNATCHED from the jaws of death; saved om the grave-are sample expressions in etters from ladies who have been relieved rom lives of misery and suffering by English Female Bitters.

Made of all work-the newspaper. - Boston Commercial Bulletin.

Piso's Cure for Consumption and rest well. | SMITH'S TONIC SYRUP, "Gorne to learn to dance, Claudel" "Yes, I've taken steps in that direction."

Young men or middle-aged ones, sufferng from nervous debility and kindred yeaknesses should send 10 cents in stamps for illustrated book suggesting sure means of cure. Address World's Dispensary Medcal Association, 663 Main Street, Buffalo,

Monn physique and less physic is what "The leprous distilment, whose effect Holds such an emaity with blood of man, That swift is quicksliver, it courses through The natural entes and alleys of the body," and causes the skin to become "barked about, most lazar-like, with vile and loath-some crust." Fuch are the effects of diseased and morbid bile, the only antidote stop, and Wilhelm sprang to his feet ing most open claims of food special states of the part of the special states of the special st In a room opening out from the shop a young Bavarian soldier lay on a rough bench. His head was supported by a mountain character could be mentioned bench. His head was supported by a mountain character could be mentioned similar character could be mentioned over the lea, out across the wold, anon similar character could be mentioned over the lea, out across the wold, anon similar character could be mentioned over the lea, out across the wold, anon over the lea, out across the wold, anon over the lea, out across the wold, anon over the way, who, now that his coward I am!" he thought, "The cause it is not available. And the pulses it is not available. And the pulses the single course left the base of the hill (and here course left the base of the hill (and here cause it is not available. And the pulses the single course left the base of the hill (and here cause it is not available. And the pulses the single course left the base of the hill (and here cause it is not available. And the pulses the single course left the base of the hill (and here cause it is not available. And the wide, as near as it could be pulses it is not available. And the wide, as near as it could be pulsed the wide, as near as it could be pulsed the single course it is not available. And the wide, as near as it could be pulsed the single course it is not available. And the wide, as near as it could be cause it is not available. And the wide, as near as it could be cause it is not available. And the wide, as near as it could be pulsed to the beat of the base of the bill (and here course left the base of the bill (and here cause it is not available. And the course it is not available. And the course it is not available. The course is not available to the course is not available. The cour pillow; one arm hong useless by his get'c fashion, characteristic of his counskimming the outskirts of the moor and and need an explanation, which is the channel was contracted and quite narskimming the outskirts of the moor and and need an explanation, which is the channel was contracted and quite narpermanently by the use of this great natside: a look of atter sadness was in his blue eyes. Wither sadness was in his blue eyes. With same sadness was in his blue eyes. But I can bear my pain—son of the old dame, who rented the charm for him; he purposed brushing to a work and I can bear my pain—was certain mater through which the gas is charm for him; he purposed brushing gently escaping.

There came a touch on his arm

There came a touch on his arm

There came a touch on his arm vitality to a worn and diseased body.

A onnen turtle can live six weeks without food. That is why it is green .- Pitts-

Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription"

A Box or Glenn's Sulphun Soap is equiv

Hull's Ham and Whierer Dye, Black or

It is a sleepy old coat that has had no ERTEL'S VICTOR MAY PRESS

DR. H. H. GREEN & SONS, APIUM HABIT

Cure patients pronounced hopeless by the best of From the first dose the symptoms rapidly disappear, nd in ten days at least two thirds of all symptoms are Some may cry humbug without knowing anything ing, cases that have been tapped a number of times, and the patient deciared unable to live a week. Give full listory of case. Name sex, now long afflicted, how badly ewollen and where, are howels contice, have legs hursted and stipped water. Send for free pazaphlet, containing technonials, questions, etc.

Ten days' treatment furnished free by mail.

Explicacy (fits) per tively cured.

If you order tink. I be cents in stamps to pay postage.

250 1-2 Haristta Street, Atlanta, Ga.

COUNTY GRITT The second THE HEST IN THE WORLD FOR TABLE MEAL! flaweler of Meal sent on Application. MORTH GAROLINA MILLSTONE CO.

Pisn's Remedy for Catarrh is the Best, Encient to Use, and Cheapent. Also good for Cold in the Head, Headenie, Hay Fever, do. to cante.

Delays Are Dangerous

The time to take a medicine is when Nature gives stop work, but take Hood's Sarasparilla now. It regulate the liver and kidneys, and give strength to ie whole body. "I have seen the value of Hood's Sarsaparilla in use in the Massachusetts State Prison, and have also used it in my family with perfect satisfaction. We believe it to be everything that is claimed for L" A. W. KEENE, deputy warden, State Prison, "Having been afflicted with a complication of dis-tory." MRS. J. BARTON, New Haven, Ct. Hood's Sarsaparilia Sold by all druggists. H; six for $5. Prepared only Py C. L. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lo. vell, Mass.

100 Doses One Dollar

DR. JOHN BULL'S FOR THE CURETOF FEVER and ACUE

Or CHILLS and FEVER,

The proprietor of this celebrated medicine edies ever offered to the public for the SAFE, CERTAIN, SPEEDY and PERMANENT care of Ague and Fever, or Chills and Fever, whether of short or long standing. He refers to the entire Western and Southern country to bear to business by the lash that is ever hold him testimony to the truth of the assertion that in no case whatever will it faul to cure if directions are strictly followed and carried For removing dandruff and curing all out. In a great many cases a single dose has scalp diseases, use Hall's Hair Renewer. been sufficient for a cure, and whole families been sufficient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bettle, with a porfeet restorat on of the general health. It is, owever, prudent, and in every case more certrin to cure, if its was is continued in smaller dones for a week or two after the disease has been checked, more especially in difficult and long-standing cases. Usually this medicino will not require any aid to keep the bowels in. ood order. Should the patient, however, reuire a cathartic medicine, after having taken preser four doses of the Tonic, a single dose OF KENT'S VEGETABLE FAMILY PILLS WILL be sufficient. USE no other pill. Price, $1.00 per Bettle; Six Bottles for $5. IF a cough disturbs your sleep, take DR. JOHN BULL'S BULL'S SARSAPARILLA, BULL'S WORM DESTROYER. The Popular Remedies of the Day. Principal Office, 831 Main St., LOYISVILLE, KY.

EDUCATIONAL. U NION COLLEGE of LAW, Chicago, Fall Term be HOME STUDY. Book-keeping, Business ireo, BUSINESS COLLEGE, Burnie, N. K.

AGENTS WANTED FOR ANY EGGS. Your Baby The total LYON'S The total LYON'S Sold by all druggests. OPIUM Marshine Habit Cured in 10 to 20 days. No pay till cared. Dr.J. Stephens, Lebanon, Chia

Corn-Mills and Millstones
ALL SIZES.
THE RENT IN THE WORLD TO 88 A DAY. Samples worth $1,50 Fright Lines not under the horse's rest. Write EREWSTER RESTET SEEN ROLDER CO., Holy, Sich.

M neverfalls, Dr. C.C. Moore, N. Y.Chy CHILLS 1093 A. H. E., F. WHEN WRITING TO ADVERTISERS please say you saw the advertisement in when and where their advartisons to are paying been